

Overview

The Training Integration Office is a multifunctional and diverse organization, with experience that covers the full spectrum of the Regiment with a focus on integration, future operations, and continued improvement of the Engineer Regiment. The Training Integration Office embodies the following characteristics:

- Mission: To integrate training , leader development, and doctrine across joint engineer, TRADOC, the Engineer Regiment and the Army.
- Purpose: Provide a common basis of visions, training standards, and solutions.
- Core Processes: Coordinate training support to engineer units with priority to deploying units and modular converting units.